

Application Process for International Applicants

Guide for filling in the online application form

Application period for Bachelor and State Examination programs:

End of May until July 15, 2025
for Studienkolleg:

End of May until July 15, 2025

Please refer to this link for updated information:

<https://www.uni-regensburg.de/ur-international/incomings/pursuing-a-degree-program/application/index.html>

The entire application, including the documents must be received online at the University of Regensburg by the deadline.

Application period for Master programs:

vary depending on the degree program, but deadlines are sometimes as early as 01.06.

Current information can be found on the websites of the respective Master's degree programs!

For Master's applications, the documents and steps required in the campus portal may differ from the tutorial.

The online application via <https://campusportal.uni-regensburg.de> consists of 2 steps:

1. registration of the applicant data and opening of an applicant profile
2. application and online submission

The default language configuration is normally German. The language selection button, to change to English, is located on the furthest right bottom of the page.

1. Registration: enter your personal data and choose a password for your profile.
- 1.1. If it is the first time you apply or enroll at the UR, please open a new applicant's account.
 - 1.1.1 You will receive a verification e-mail with your user ID.

3) Enrolling for all programs with free admissions or if admission has been granted for a restricted admission program:

- Login with your account data. If you have already applied for a program with restricted admittance, please use the same login data!
- During the enrollment period: Matriculate online, upload a photo,
- and then enroll with your signed enrollment application and all the documents necessary.

2.7. To apply for a place in the preparatory German course, please select "Non- degree (German course)" as your degree, right at the beginning of the application. Later in the form, you will be asked to select the subject and degree you would like to study at the UR after the German course.

- Applicants for the Studienkolleg and the subjects Human Medicine, Dentistry and Molecular Medicine will not find these subjects in the selection menu because the UR does not offer courses for this groups. Applicants who intend to study these subjects must visit language courses outside the UR and apply directly for a subject afterwards.

- Most applicants for master's degree must apply at the faculty first, bevor registering on Campusportal for the German courses.

3. Submit application: at the end you can see an overview of the data you have entered. If everything is correct, confirm that your details are correct and submit your application. You can also generate a "data control sheet" to document your entries. You will find the button on the right side of the page.

- Even if you fill out several applications, only one application can be submitted. This one will be marked with the status "received".
- You will always see the current status of your application in the "Status of requested subject" field.
- By clicking on the "Print your application" button, you will receive an automatically generated confirmation of your application.

- 3.1. If your application is not complete, you will be notified accordingly on the applicant's portal (inbox). In this case, upload the required documents and submit the application again. Applications in evaluation process will be marked "received" and later "valid".
- The status "valid" does not mean that you have been admitted, but that all documents have arrived at the Registrar's Office.
 - You will also see the Officer's reply to your application later in the "Status of requested subject " field.

Our recommendations

1. Inform yourself about the courses offered at the University of Regensburg before applying online: International Office > Information on subjects offered
2. Find out whether you can study the desired course with your school and higher education certificates: Advisory Service International Office
3. Prepare your application documents in digital form on time.
4. Make sure you activate the email notification in the applicant's portal so that you do not miss any status changes. It is particularly important when applying for subjects with limited admission to accept the assigned place before stated deadline.
5. In case of technical difficulties with the Campusportal, please contact the Registrar' Office directly.
