

August Lösch Society and
Regensburg University
Urban Economics and Retail Real Estate

“August Lösch Prize conference 2025”

Friday (June 27th)

2.00 - 2.30 p.m. Welcome/Coffee (on campus: VG 2.35)

2.30 - 4.00 p.m.: Session 1 (on campus: VG 2.35)

- Andreas Mense (Nürnberg): Affordable Housing and Individual Labor Market Outcomes
- Bing Zhu (Munich): Enable Market to Supply Affordable Housing? Evidence from the Mandatory Inclusionary Housing Policy in Germany

4.30 - 6.00 p.m.: Session 2 (on campus: VG 2.35)

- Rainald Borck (Potsdam): Is Work from Home Good for the Environment?
- Jorge de la Roca (USC and Keynote): Skill Allocation and Urban Amenities in the Developing World

07.30 - 10.30 p.m.: get together (meeting up on Haidplatz)

- short tour of Old Town, then conference dinner (Goldene Ente)

Saturday (June 28th)

08.45 - 10.30 a.m.: Session 3 and Award (on campus: H22)

- Dieter Pennerstorfer (Linz): Do Co-Ethnic Commuters Disseminate Labor Market Information? Evidence from Geo-Coded Register Data
- Yuhei Miyauchi (Boston): Economic Geography and Networks
- Rainald Borck (Potsdam): August Lösch Prize 2025 to Yuhei Miyauchi

11.00 - 12.30 a.m.: Session 4 (on campus: H22)

- Gunther Maier (Vienna): Gutenberg 2.0: Academic Publishing in the Digital World
- Kristof Dascher (Regensburg): Time at Home, and the Inexorable Rise of the Chess Block